Scott Gilbert: Great South Central Kentucky Basket and History Tour

Notes for Tour Participants:

Wear comfortable lightweight clothes and shoes, although we will not be outside for long periods, bring a hat for sun protection and bring a rain jacket just in case. Bring your camera. There will be opportunities to purchase items at the National Park Gift shop, South Union Shaker Village gift shop and pottery at Suzanne Renfrow's shop. Even though we will be in the heart of Kentucky basket country, we cannot guarantee that there will be any baskets to purchase. You may bring a snack with you for those days of travel. Bottled water and lunch will be included.
