

NBO CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS: INFORMATION AND APPLICATION

TRADITION & INNOVATION IN BASKETRY TEN
Western Kentucky University
Bowling Green, Kentucky
July 16 - 20, 2019

Scholarships are available to those wishing to attend NBO’s Biennial Conference. We encourage applications from students, teachers, and makers at all levels and welcomes those new to the field as well as those with those with extensive experience. Along with makers, we encourage applications from those in curatorial, art history, and writing fields.

Please help us understand your reasons for wanting to join us at Western Kentucky University by submitting a one-page statement. Our scholarship committee uses these statements as the basis for making award decisions. You may include anything you feel supports your case for an award, including resumes or images, but these materials are not required.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Occupation/Student Status & School _____

Are you a member of NBO? ___ Yes ___ No

Have you attended another NBO Biennial Conference? ___ Yes ___ No

In which three workshops are you interested? (List in order of preference)

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

What is your experience and skill level in basketry and or fiber arts?

Send completed application and any attachments by October 5, 2018 to:

NBO Scholarship Committee
PO Box 1524
Gloucester, MA 01931-1524

Via Email: info@nationalbasketry.org
Telephone: 617-863-0366

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age. Please note that NBO may limit the frequency or total number of scholarships an applicant may receive.

Signature of Applicant: _____ Date: _____